3 Days Danakil Depression Adventure

Overview

Day 1, Erta Ale Camping Full-Board
Day 2 ,Lake Afdera and Hamed Ela Camping Full-Board
Day 3 , Asebo, Dallol, and Lake Assal | Departs Full-Board

Detailed Full Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival at Semera Airport
Meet & Greet:Upon arrival, your driver-guide will welcome you.
Travel to Erta Ale:Drive to Erta Ale, a 613-meter lava lake, 205 kilometers from the city. This remarkable natural attraction is one of only five lava lakes in the world.
Trek to the Volcano: After dinner, trek to the rim of the volcano where you'll camp overnight, witnessing the dramatic boiling lava.

Day 2: Lake Afdera and Hamed Ela
-Morning:Enjoy an early breakfast before descending from Erta Ale.
-Lake Afdera: Drive to Lake Afdera, a saltwater lake below sea level. Explore the picturesque salt flats where the Afar people harvest salt.
Camp at Hamed Ela: Spend the night at Hamed Ela on a full-board basis.

Day 3: Asebo, Dallol, and Lake Assal
Salt Mining at Asebo: Visit Ragad (Asebo) to observe local salt mining activities.
Dallol Excursion: Drive to Dallol, one of the lowest places on earth, and explore its colorful landscapes formed by volcanic activity.
Return to Semera Airport: After the excursion, drive back to Semera Airport for your flight to Addis Ababa.

Costs

Total Price: $1,170 per person

Price Includes:

- All domestic flight tickets
- Entrance fees and licenses as per the program
- Accommodation and meals throughout the tour
- Bottled water during the trip
- Surface transport with a four-wheel drive, including fuel and driver's allowance
- Local guide service
- Camping equipment
- Scout and police service
- Camel and camel tires as per the program

Price Excludes:

- Personal insurance
- Tips
- soft drinks

Equipment You Should Bring:

- Torchlight
- Small backpack for the volcano trek
- Hiking shoes
- First aid supplies
- Sunscreen
- Toilet paper
- Sunglasses
- Slippers (open shoes)
- Jacket
- Wipes
- Walking stick
- Gas mask
- Swimming suit