3-day itinerary for visiting the Omo Valley tribes from Jinka, including the Turmi Hamer tribe, Mursi village, and Karo tribe:

Day 1: Fly from Addis Ababa to Jinka and Visit Turmi Hamer Tribe

Start your journey by taking a flight from Addis Ababa to Jinka. The flight duration is approximately 1 hour. Upon arrival in Jinka, you will be met by a local guide who will accompany you throughout your trip. From Jinka, drive to Turmi, which is the main town of the Hamer tribe.

Visit a Hamer village and immerse yourself in their unique culture and traditions. Interact with the locals, witness their traditional ceremonies, and learn about their way of life. In the evening, return to Turmi for an overnight stay in a local lodge or campsite.

Day 2: Mursi Village and Karo Tribe

After breakfast, depart from Turmi and drive to the Mursi village. The Mursi tribe is known for their distinctive lip plates and intricate body scarification. Explore their village, interact with the tribe members, and learn about their customs and rituals.

After visiting the Mursi village, continue your journey to the Karo tribe. The Karo tribe is renowned for their body painting and intricate body decorations. Spend time with the Karo people, witness their traditional dances, and admire their artistic skills. In the late afternoon, return to Turmi for another night's stay.

Day 3: Return Flight from Jinka to Addis Ababa

After breakfast, check out from your accommodation in Turmi and drive back to Jinka. In Jinka, you can visit the South Omo Research Center and Museum to learn more about the diverse tribes of the Omo Valley and their history. If time allows, you can also explore the local markets in Jinka and purchase some traditional crafts or souvenirs. In the afternoon, catch your return flight from Jinka to Addis Ababa. Arrive in Addis Ababa in the evening, concluding your trip to the Omo Valley tribes..
