Explore Tiya and Adadi Maryam Rock-Hewn Church

A day tour from Addis Ababa to Tiya Stelae, Adadi Maryam rock-hewn church, and Gurage people village a fascinating itinerary!

1. Depart from Addis Ababa: Start your day early in the morning from Addis Ababa. You can hire a private car or join a guided tour for convenience and ease of transportation.

2. Tiya Stelae: Your first stop will be Tiya Stelae, which is located approximately 85 kilometers south of Addis Ababa. Tiya is a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its ancient stone monuments or stelae. These stelae are intricately carved with symbols and serve as grave markers, dating back to the 10th to 14th centuries. Take your time to explore the site and learn about its historical significance.

3. Adadi Maryam Rock-Hewn Church: After visiting Tiya Stelae, head towards Adadi Maryam, which is about 20 kilometers south of Tiya. Adadi Maryam is a rock-hewn church that dates back to the 13th century. It is carved out of a single piece of rock and has beautiful frescoes and architectural details. Explore the church and appreciate its unique construction and cultural importance.

4. Gurage People Village: From Adadi Maryam, continue your journey to a nearby Gurage people village. The Gurage are one of the ethnic groups in Ethiopia known for their distinct culture, traditions, and cuisine. Take the opportunity to interact with the local people, learn about their way of life, and immerse yourself in their cultural experiences. You may also get a chance to taste traditional Gurage dishes and witness traditional dances or ceremonies.

5. Return to Addis Ababa: After a fulfilling day exploring Tiya Stelae, Adadi Maryam rock-hewn church, and the Gurage people village, you can return to Addis Ababa. The journey back will take approximately 2 to 3 hours, depending on traffic conditions.
